

We need to stop this attempt at ending net neutrality, the internet and fair communication over the internet as we know it will be forever changed if this is allowed to pass, and not in a good way, unless you are a CEO of a telecom company that is.